ASKED BY PROSPECTIVE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

1 DOES THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA HAVE AN APPLICATION DEADLINE?

International applicant deadlines are:

Fall Semester - April 15 | Spring Semester - October 15 | Summer Semester - February 15

You will also want to check with the Graduate Coordinator of your department regarding program-specific deadlines (including assistantship funding), which can be due earlier in the admissions cycle.

2 WHAT IS THE COST OF THE APPLICATION?

International applicants pay $100.00 to apply to the UGA Graduate School.

3 CAN I APPLY TO MORE THAN ONE GRADUATE PROGRAM?

Yes, to apply for a second graduate program, international applicants would pay an additional application fee of $40.00.

4 WHERE DO I SEND THE ADMISSIONS APPLICATION MATERIALS?

The application process is done online through the Graduate School Admissions Website:

<http://grad.uga.edu/index.php/prospective-students/international-application-information/admission-requirement/>. The online application process includes unofficial copies of transcripts, resume, 3 letters of recommendation, and your statement of purpose. Official test scores must be submitted directly to our office by the testing agency. Official transcripts may be mailed to us from your school, mailed to us by you, or else brought to us in person. Official transcripts must remain sealed in the issuing institution's envelope to be considered official. Our office hours are Monday through Friday, from 8AM until 5PM. Our physical and mailing address follows below - UGA Graduate Admissions | Brooks Hall 335 | 310 Herty Drive | Athens, GA 30602-6254 - For domestic schools, our office also accepts, and prefers, electronic delivery of your transcripts from your institution through secure services, such as Parchment and National Student Clearinghouse. If the sending school or service requires a recipient email address, please use gradadm@uga.edu.

5 HOW CAN I CHECK MY APPLICATION STATUS?

After submitting your online application, you may check your application status at <https://gradapply.uga.edu/apply/status>. You will use your email address and the password you created when you filled out the application.

6 HOW DO I CHANGE MY APPLICATION TO A DIFFERENT SEMESTER?

You are eligible for a one-time change of admissions term without filing a new application and paying a new application fee. You will need to email the Graduate Admissions Office at gradadm@uga.edu. You must make the change before the add/drop period of the semester you had originally applied for has ended.

7 DO I HAVE TO TAKE THE GRE?

All applicants applying to a graduate degree program, with the exception of a few programs, must request official test scores to be reported to UGA's Graduate Admissions Office. Some departments require the GMAT or MAT instead of the GRE. Please contact your department to see which test score they require.

8 MUST I SUBMIT AN OFFICIAL TOEFL SCORE AND WHAT IS THE MINIMUM TEST SCORE?

The University of Georgia will accept satisfactory scores on either the TOEFL or IELTS language proficiency examinations for admission to graduate programs. TOEFL and IELTS scores should be reported electronically by the testing agency. Minimum TOEFL score requirement: overall score of 80 with at least 20 on speaking and writing. Minimum IELTS score requirement: overall band-width of 6.5, with no single band (score) below 6.0. Please visit English Language Proficiency Requirements for more information.

9 CAN I SUBMIT THE IELTS TEST SCORE IN PLACE OF THE TOEFL TEST SCORE?

Yes, you may submit the IELTS test score instead of the TOEFL. Test scores cannot be over two years old. The minimum overall test score is a 6.5 with no subtotal score below 6.0.

10 CAN I SUBMIT THE IELTS TEST SCORE ELECTRONICALLY OR PAPER-BASED DOCUMENTS ONLY?

The IELTS test score can be submitted electronically or directly by the testing service agency.

11 WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS FOR SUBMITTING TRANSCRIPTS?

You must submit unofficial transcripts from all institutions attended as part of the online application process. If you are unable to submit your transcript(s) by the online application, it can be emailed to gradadm@uga.edu. Please make sure the size of the attached file is less than 2MB. Official transcripts are not required during the review process and will only be required for applicants who are offered admission.
